| 76. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Evidence that the entity is registered as a foreign company in Australia | Annexure 21 – ASIC Certificate of Registration as a Foreign Company |
| 77. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Confirmation that the entity's Prospectus, Product Disclosure Statement or Information Memorandum includes a clear statement of its place of incorporation or registration and a statement to the effect that:
"As [name of entity] is not established in Australia, its general corporate activities (apart from any offering of securities in Australia) are not regulated by the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth of Australia or by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission but instead are regulated by [insert name of governing legislation] and [insert name of corporate regulator administering that legislation]." | Confirmed – This statement is included in section 9.3 of the Information Memorandum under the subheading 'EBOS as a New Zealand Company' |
| 78. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> A concise summary ²⁷ of the rights and obligations of security holders under the law of its home jurisdiction covering: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• what types of transactions require security holder approval;• whether security holders have a right to request or requisition a meeting of security holders;• whether security holders have a right to appoint proxies to attend and vote at meetings on their behalf;• how changes in the rights attaching to securities are regulated;• what rights do security holders have to seek relief for oppressive conduct;• what rights do security holders have to bring or intervene in legal proceedings on behalf of the entity; and• whether there is any equivalent to the "two strikes" rule in relation to remuneration reports in Part 2G.2 Division 9 of the Corporations Act | See section 9.3 of the Information Memorandum under the subheading 'Concise summary of rights and obligations of security holders, and substantial holdings and takeovers, under New Zealand law' |
| 79. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> A concise summary ²⁸ of how the disclosure of substantial holdings and takeovers are regulated under the law of its home jurisdiction | See section 9.3 of the Information Memorandum under the subheading 'Concise summary of rights and obligations of security holders, and substantial holdings and takeovers, under New Zealand law' |

²⁷ The concise summary is not intended to be a legal treatise on the laws of the entity's home jurisdiction or a detailed comparative analysis of those laws with the laws of Australia. For those matters where the entity's home jurisdiction has broadly comparable laws to Australia, a statement to that effect will generally suffice.

²⁸ See note 27 above.

Further documents to be provided before admission to the official list

Please note that in addition to the information and documents mentioned above, all entities will be required to provide the following before their admission to the official list and the quotation of their securities commences:

- A statement setting out the names of the 20 largest holders in each class of securities to be quoted, and the number and percentage of each class of securities held by those holders;
- A distribution schedule of each class of equity securities to be quoted, setting out the number of holders in the categories:
 - 1 - 1,000
 - 1,001 - 5,000
 - 5,001 - 10,000
 - 10,001 - 100,000
 - 100,001 and over
- The number of holders of a parcel of securities (excluding restricted securities) with a value of more than $2,000, based on the issue/sale price; and
- Any other information that ASX may require under listing rule 1.17.²⁹

²⁹ Among other things, this information may include evidence (such as copies of the entity's share register, bank statements, application forms and cheques) to demonstrate compliance with the minimum spread requirements in listing rule 1 condition 7.
