EBOS Animal Care CEO Appointment

EBOS Group Limited (“EBOS”) is pleased to announce the appointment of Julie Dillon as its new CEO Animal Care with effect from 1 November 2021. Ms Dillon joins EBOS following more than 25 years with Colgate-Palmolive where she gained broad experience as a leader across general management, brand marketing, digital, strategy and innovation.

After an extensive career internationally within many Colgate-Palmolive consumer products segments across the US, the UK and Europe, Ms Dillon returned to Australia in 2018 and most recently was Vice President and General Manager of the Colgate-Palmolive Division of Hill’s Pet Nutrition business for Australia, New Zealand and Greater Asia, based in Sydney.

John Cullity, EBOS Chief Executive Officer said, “Julie, with her wealth of broad experience in the pet and FMCG sectors, will be a great asset to our Animal Care business, which continues to experience strong growth. With increasing pet ownership and global trends such as the humanisation of pets and premiumisation of pet care products, I am very pleased to have Julie on board to steer our Animal Care business through this very exciting time”.
